Judge Aldrich. (From the Columbia Herald.) Let us take the case of Judge Aldrich, for instance. His term is about to expire, but where can there be found a more worthy, patriotic and competent man for the position than this gentleman? Not only has he given satisfaction in the discharge of his judicial duties, but the important service rendered by him to his people belongs to the history of this State. His firm stand in opposition to the menacing bayonets of this military satrap, Gen. Canby, is a proof of his courage and determination and what may be expected of him whenever the occasion demands. He was the first to assail the hip pocket, and his unceasing warfare against the carrying of concealed weapons has done much to prevent crime in the State. His charges to juries have always been clear, wise and forcible. He is as much feared and hated by criminals as he is respected by the supporters of law and order. Besides this, he is a polished gentleman, a true friend to humanity and a distinguished lawyer. We are in favor of the judges being retained during good behavior, or until superannuated.

Next Issue.

On last Wednesday every news reader of Manning was anxious to get the News and Courier to learn the result of the elections in the various States, especially in Virginia. When the P. M. announced that no papers had come, there was exhibited by the crowd a great deal of disappointment and a feeling to blame some one. Later in the day the bag containing the News and Courier and other papers was picked up from the ditch at a point between the railroad tank and the deep cut, where it had been thrown by the mail agent, from the train. Bag and papers were soaking wet, and our Postmaster had to sun and air the papers before distributing them. On Friday no papers came, and we presume the mail agent carried them on to Sumter. Now, this is just simply outrageous, and such conduct should be reported at once to head-quarters and the guilty party should either be removed or taught to discharge his duty properly. It is one of two things: That the mail agent is guilty of gross negligence, or that he is incompetent to discharge the duties of his office, by not having the business capacity to assort the mail properly between the stations within the time he has to do it. In either case, he should be made to account for such conduct.

The Summerton Vigilance Committee.

Mr. Editor: In compliance with your request, I will in few words give you the origin and the object of the organization of the Summerton Vigilance Committee: Several of the more conservative members of the community, alarmed at the extent to which the illicit traffic in spirituous liquors had been carried in various sections of this part of the County, and indignant at the indifference of the officers of the law whose duty it is to report and bring to justice these bold violators of all moral, social and religious as well as civil law, organized themselves into the above named committee. They do not mean now to take the law into their own hands, but as good citizens they deem it their duty to use first every legitimate means to suppress the hellish traffic. It is a duty they owe the community in which they live, a duty they owe to their own families, to do so, and then if they fail, their desperation may drive them to do what they now have no idea of resorting to; and they are not a little surprised Mr. Editor, that the County papers have shown so little disposition to give them that support and encouragement which they had a right to expect from them as the recognized conservators of the public morals.

Lynch law or mob law, tho' deprecated by any law abiding citizen, is the natural expression of popular indignation at the law's delay or utter failure to arraign and convict the evil doer. May our people be saved from this dire extremity.

SUMMERTON.

VANCES FERRY.

VANCES FERRY, S. C., Oct. 24, 1885.

Mr. Editor: We propose to send you more rambling dots from over the line, in "De Bay down by do Riber."—From what we had heard, had some misgivings, but curiosity led us on to visit an old friend, who lives in this part of Clarendon. We had to pass directly through the lines of the "Summerton vigilance committee," fearing we might be suspected as a spy, we engaged the company of Judge Mahoney and his Deputy, consequently being thus protected by the strong arm of the law, our fears subsided. We reached our destination and enjoyed a pleasant day, with nothing to mar our pleasure. The Summerton vigilance committee had out their pickets, menacing the merchants in the Bay with peremptory orders as to the illicit traffic in seed cotton. Those who were waited upon were in agony grouped together discussing the situation determined to meet the issue and the invasion of their rights as like citizens of the County—with the same spirit that prompted the crusade and to resent with force if necessary, the insult and unlawful proceedings contemplated by the vigilance committee. This was the feeling we found with some of the merchants. It seemed to us that a small spark would ignite and fan into a flame, a tragedy similar to Edgefield. If the traffic in seed cotton be wrong, is there no Statute prohibiting it? Why take the law in our own hands? Vigilant Societies now can reach offenders only by lynch law and this mode of prosecution is never infallible. Committees of this kind often in the grave mistakes. We don't suppose that the intention of this committee was lynch law, for those who compose it are some of our best and most worthy citizens. But such organizations generally create bad blood, as it was done in this case. The merchants over the line are indignant, and have organized against attack.

The death of Mrs. Dorcas M. Rlame brings grief to many hearts. This estimable

Christian lady for months has been waiting upon the margin of the sun for permission to cross over into the promise land. Her funeral was preached by Rev. L. D. Bass. The manifestation of deep sorrow by her children and the large attendance at her burial bore testimony to her worth and strong attachment for her as a mother. A life long member of the Calvary Baptist Church, and an exemplary Christian has passed away.

"Her languishing head is at rest, It's aching and throbbing are o'er; Her quiet immovable breast Is heaved by afflict on no more." TOM.

An Englishman's Testimony.

I feel it my duty to the thousand who suffer from Blood Poison to give my experience with that horrible disease and the wonderful effect of Swift's Specific in its treatment. I am a native of England, and while there I contracted this terrible disease, and for two years was under treatment as an outdoor patient at Nottingham Hospital, England, but was not cured. I suffered the agonizing pains in my bones, and was covered with sores all over my body and limbs. I had vertigo and deafness, with partial loss of sight severe pains in my head and eyes, etc., which nearly ran me crazy. I lost all hope in that country, and sailed for America, and was treated at Roosevelt in this city, as well as by a prominent physician in New York, having no connection with the hospitals.

I saw the advertisement of Swift's Specific, and I determined to give it a trial as a last resort. I had given up all hope of being cured, as I had gone through the hands of the best medical men in Nottingham and New York. I took six bottles of S. S. S. and I can say with great joy that they have cured me entirely. I am sound and well as I ever was in my life. I was so proud of the cure that I wrote to Gloucester, England, to an old companion who is suffering with locomotor ataxia, as the doctors call it, caused by Blood Poison. He has arrived here, and is taking S. S. S. with marked benefit. I confidently believe that in a short time he will be entirely well, and that after having passed through the best medical hands in England without any good effect.
